1. Does con-science lay a guilt - y charge, And Mos - es much con - demn, And
 2. He paid thy ran - som with his hand, And ever - y score did quit; And
 3. Now jus - tice smiles on merc - y sweet, And looks well re - con - ciled; Joined
 4. But ask the Lord for his re - ceipt, To show the pay - ment good, De-bring in bills ex - ceed - ing large? Let Je - sus ans - wer them.

 Mos - es ne - ver can de - mand Two pay - ments of one debt.
 hand in hand, they go to meet And kiss a weep - ing child.
 - liv - ered from the merc - y - seat, And sprinkl - ed with his blood.

5. The law thy feet will not enlarge,
 Nor give thy conscience rest,
 Till thou canst find a full discharge
 Locked up within thy breast.

6. [The sight of this will melt thy heart,
 And make thy eyes run o'er.
 A happy, pardoned child thou art,
 And heaven is at thy door.]
