

1. I'm not too young for God to see, He knows my name
 2. He lis - tens to the words I say, And knows the thoughts
 3. O how could chil - dren tell a lie, Or cheat in play,
 4. If some good min - is - ter is near, It makes us care -
 5. Then when I want to do a - miss, How - ev - er pleas - and na - ture too, And all day long He looks at me, I have with - in; And wheth - er I'm at work or play, or steal, or fight, If they re - mem - bered God was by, ful what we do; And how much more we ought to fear ant it may be, O may I al - ways think of this,

And sees my ac - tions through and through.
 He's sure to see me if I sin.
 And had them al - ways in His sight.
 The Lord, who sees us through and through.
 I'm not too young for God to see.
