Be - hind Him to weep at the Phar - i - see's feast,
 His love and His power would to - geth - er pro - claim;
 The chil - dren of sor - row, of pain, of dis - tress;
 Would point to the son, now re - stored her a - gain;

To wipe with her hair, when she'd washed with her tears
 The dumb would speak out, and the deaf would re - call
 And faith, by the hem of His gar - ment, would prove
 Would say 'twas His love, His com - pas - sion and grace

His feet, who had loved her, and si - lenced her fears.
 The Name of that Je - sus, who heal - ed them all.
 What vir - tue there is - sued from Him who is love.
